

German Film Festival

Following the AGM decision to discontinue our Movie Night and instead encourage participation in international film festivals in Brisbane, we'd like to remind you of the German Film Festival, running in Brisbane from 6 to 27 May 2026.

For more info see: <https://germanfilmfestival.com.au/venues/Brisbane>

Movie Night “Hello Betty” Saturday, 23 May 2026

We are delighted to announce an opportunity to come together for the German Film Festival. The committee has chosen the movie “Hello Betty”. Betty Bossi has been the stalwart of many a Swiss German menu for home cooking. This is her story.

We have booked several tickets already – (Saturday 23 May, start time 5.45pm) in seating L8-13 and M12 and 13. Try and get tickets close by if you wish to sit with the group.

Date: Saturday, 23 May, at 4.30 pm

Where: at the Brewery Caxton Street (on the corner of Caxton and Petrie Tce) for a social get together before the movie starts.

Movie: “Hello Betty” starts at 5.45pm (concludes at 7.50pm).

Cost: Please use the following link to book your tickets directly. Kindly note that attendees are required to purchase their own tickets individually.
<https://buy.palacecinemas.com.au/?cinema=121&session=271811>

Movie synopsis: Set in 1956, this heartfelt and inspiring dramedy from Swiss director Pierre Monnard tells the incredible true story of visionary advertising pioneer Emmi Creola.